2024 Clinical Conference Brochure

Dear Conference Attendees,

On behalf of the American Osteopathic Academy of Sports Medicine Executive Committee, Board of Directors, Conference Planning Committee, and the city of Tulsa, Oklahoma, it is my sincere pleasure to welcome you to AOASM's 39th Annual Clinical Conference at the Hyatt Regency Tulsa Downtown.

Tulsa is located along the famous Route 66 which is well known for its role as an icon of transportation and an agent of social transformation in the United States bridging the Midwest and the West coast. To compliment this insightful road trip, the theme for this year's conference is "Frontiers in Sports Medicine." We will start our voyage with exploring the frontiers of research with relation to our younger athletes, discuss the difficult relationships within the sports medicine team that occur along our journey, gain perspective of the Paralympic athlete along this trek, and discover health and wellness considerations of the Indian population in Oklahoma. From there we will venture into both newer and older topics of regenerative medicine and their applications to the athlete including hands on skill development breakout sessions as well as sessions dedicated to bone health. Continuing our journey, we will delve into the various modes of transportation related to sports medicine including equestrian, BMX, motorsports and aviation. Convalescing from this road trip, we will integrate learning more about recovery techniques for our athletes as well as the integration of osteopathic manipulation. Wrapping up our travel, introspection is key, thus we will investigate the medical considerations, psychological care and mindset of athletes transitioning from competitive to non-competitive stages of their career.

This past year has been challenging financially for the organization and to reduce expenditures, you may notice a few changes this year with regards to our offerings. This will likely impact our food and beverage offerings during the conference. Please note there are a wonderful restaurant and café onsite and other lunch options at the food hall next door conveniently accessed via an indoor connector! We have reduced our pre-conference workshops to one day and are very pleased to welcome back trailblazer Todd Capistrant, DO to offer a workshop on the Fascial Distortion Model as well as our Sports Medicine Board Review Course which has been gaining steam over the past few years.

Continuing the heritage of AOASM, we are excited as always to feature our students, residents and fellows as they continue with their journeys through training and explore the option of sports medicine careers. They will have their own dedicated workshop time as well as the ever-popular mentoring event and Fellowship Fair. We are looking forward to seeing the fruits of their labor on posters, presentations and research!

The spirit of AOASM will combine well with that of Route 66 and Tulsa. There are so many unique things to see and do while here! Our hotel is situated in close proximity to downtown's vibrant cultural, entertainment, and business districts. You will have fun exploring the area! Join us in attending a Tulsa Drillers baseball game Thursday night for some fun! Explore the art deco district and the fun underground tunnels connecting these stunning buildings. We are also a short walk away from the Historic Greenwood District and the new Greenwood Rising history center which honors the legacy of Black Wall Street and offers an immersive journey through the community before and after the Tulsa Race Massacre. There are also other amazing experiences within walking distance including music related findings such as Bob Dylan Center and the Woodie Guthrie Center. You may even spot some famous recording studio artists in the neighborhood. We are nearby the Historic Blue Dome District which is home to fantastic dining and nightlife! There are numerous museums and parks around. Make sure to head to the USA BMX Hall of Fame & Museum or the Gathering Place, an amazing riverfront park, which are a short drive away!

All of us involved in planning AOASM's 39th Annual Clinical Conference are excited to introduce you to what Tulsa has to offer along our journey exploring the "Frontiers of Sports Medicine." We hope our program, experiences and the city exceed your expectations!

Sincerely,

Kate Quinn, DO, FAOASM

Fascial Distortion Model Workshop

8:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon &
1:00 p.m. - 5:30 p.m. CT

Workshop Lead by: Todd Capistrant, DO

In this introduction to the Fascial Distortion Model (FDM) learn how adding the principles of FDM to your thought process can improve an athlete's recovery and performance. We will explain why providers across the country call the FDM "The most powerful sideline tool I have!" By learning to think in the model and by applying simple manual therapy techniques that blend seamlessly with your osteopathic tool box, you will learn how to expand your differential diagnosis and quickly return athletes to participation. The principles of FDM are rapidly becoming a mainstay for athletes and teams. Attending this course will introduce you to the visual cues and verbal descriptions that drive the FDM. This is an opportunity for anyone, including those with little manual therapy experience, to bring hands-on techniques to their practice by practicing on your fellow attendees. We will discuss the basic principles of FDM while learning to address ankle, foot, and shoulder injuries.

Participants will leave this one-day introduction with a powerful tool that can address injuries to the fascial matrix, taking our diagnosis beyond inflammation. Be ready to put these techniques into practice the next day in the clinic or on the sideline.

Fascial Distortion Model Workshop
