

AOASM 41st Annual Clinical Conference

April 29-May 2, 2026

Seattle, Washington

Faculty and Planning Committee Disclosures

The following speakers, moderators, and/or planning committee members have indicated that they may have a relevant financial relationship with an ineligible company that could be perceived as a potential conflict of interest.

Faculty Disclosures

- Jonathan Drezner, MD discloses he is an advisor for Ainthoven and Cardiac Insight
- Jason Smith, DO, FAOASM discloses he is a consultant for Hydrocision and Bioventus.
- Philip Louie, MD discloses he is a consultant for: Alphatec, Highridge Medical, Medtronic, Globus, Orthofix, and Viseon. Has received research funding from Medtronic, Apple and has received royalties from Springer, Thieme, and Elsevier.

Planning Committee Disclosures

- None

All relevant financial relationships have been mitigated.

All other faculty and planning committee members have no relevant financial relationships with ineligible companies.

Accreditation

The American Osteopathic Academy of Sports Medicine (AOASM) is accredited by the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) to provide osteopathic continuing medical education for physicians. AOASM designates this program for a maximum of 22.25 hours of AOA Category 1-A credits and will report CME and specialty credits commensurate with the extent of the physician's participation in this activity. Additionally, the pre-conference workshops offer up to 8 additional hours of AOA Category 1-A credits.